

Comparative Literature Course Assistantship Questionnaire

Note: The number of course assistant (CA) positions we can offer next year will depend on how well we make the case for need in negotiating with the College.

BEFORE filling out this form, please read the Teaching Requirements on the Dept web site here: <http://complit.uchicago.edu/graduate/teaching-requirements>

It is the responsibility of the applicant in all cases to meet posted deadlines.

Your name:

Years in the program:

Number of GAI points you will have earned by end of Spring THIS year

Number of GAI points you have still to fulfill:

1. Please list all your previous teaching experiences at U Chicago
2. Please list all pedagogy or preparatory classes you have attended or are scheduled to take, the Writing Program pedagogy course or Acquisition/ Teaching of Languages
3. If you have taken the Writing Program pedagogy course, would you be interested in be a writing intern for a Humanities core? Which core (eg Reading Cultures, Readings in World Literature, ...)?
4. If you are interested in language teaching, which? Have you taken the Acquisition and Teaching course in that language?
5. If and only if you have already fulfilled 3 GAI units as a course assistant and/or writing intern, do you have a topic in mind for a self-taught course ? Please describe it here with a title and a sentence or two; we will follow up with more detailed questions.
6. Please indicate your preference among the following possibilities for which you are qualified at the present time

Introductory

- Course assistant in a large course
- Course assistant in a smaller course
- Writing intern for Hum core
- Language instructor

Advanced

- BA preceptor
- Self-taught course
- Lector in the Core

Advanced students who might be eligible for the Tave, CSGS, CSRPC, MAPH preceptorships should consult first with their primary adviser (usually the dissertation director) before speaking to the DGS.