

Comparative Literature Major

WHO

Students who want to:

- creatively and critically learn about other cultures through their literature, film, and art
- study print, visual, and electronic media with an interdisciplinary and global perspective
- acquire knowledge of a second language and culture, which is essential to succeeding in our interconnected world
- develop important skills in critical reading, argumentation, and writing that can be applied in any professional context

WHAT

- 3 Comp Lit courses
- 4 courses in a primary field
- 3 courses in a secondary field
- Foreign Language
- BA Workshop and Thesis

HOW

APPLY HERE

CAREERS

- Publishing
- Education
- Non-Profit and Governmental Organizations
- Translation services
- Journalism and Media
- Public Relations
- Law
- Domestic/International Business

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

DEPARTMENT OF
COMPARATIVE LITERATURE
Division of the Arts & Humanities